EXPERIENCE

JD.com, Inc.

Digital Content Marketer

Shanghai, China

Sep 2020 – Oct 2021

- Owned content strategy and execution for major tentpole campaigns (Lunar New Year Stock-Up Campaign, 6.18 Ecommerce Day), including audience segmentation, category research, channel planning, key messaging, and end-to-end content production (landing pages, banners, promotional copy, etc.).
- Managed always-on channel performance at scale, supporting 1.5M daily UV and 600K daily click UV through continuous content refresh, placement planning, and performance-driven optimization.
- Delivered a 7-day Lunar New Year Stock-Up Campaign with daily category rotations (Fashion/Health/Electronics), generating 800K UV impressions, 300K click UV, 38% CTR, and ¥1.5M GMV using conversion-focused page layout, offer framing, and high-traffic placements.
- Built UGC/KOL content guidelines (image/video/text) and led KOL briefing and execution; selected creators based on audience fit, category relevance, engagement quality, and past conversion signals. Supported large-scale creator onboarding ~40K, contributing to 99K posts with 1.61M daily exposure UV and 91K daily click UV.
- Partnered cross-functionally with brand managers, designers, and on-site merchandising to launch interactive campaign pages and ads, aligning timelines, approvals, and assets to hit event deadlines.

The BRIEF Lab

Marketing Research Consultant

Chicago, IL

Jun 2019 – Sep 2019

- Supported the launch of AlignUp, a manager–employee communication tool that structures 1:1s, goals, and follow-ups to reduce misalignment and improve feedback quality.
- Led user research across 114 survey responses and 7 1:1 interviews; analyzed qualitative and quantitative data to pinpoint top pain points (unclear expectations, inconsistent check-ins, lack of accountability).
- Synthesized insights into personas, customer journeys, and key use cases; translated findings into product messaging and feature priorities aligned to manager workflows.
- Defined positioning and USP (“turn scattered conversations into actionable alignment”) and managed MVP go-to-market plan (target segments, use cases, launch channels, and success metrics).

PHD Media Worldwide

Marketing Analyst Intern

Shanghai, China

Jul 2018 – Sep 2018

- Analyzed performance across 10+ campaigns, 5+ brands and 30+ placements (native/display, product-level ads), comparing CTR, CVR, CPA/CPC to identify top-performing inventory and underperforming spend.
- Built audience segmentation and behavioral insights from engagement patterns (device, interest/context signals), producing targeting/placement recommendations that informed next-step optimizations and test plans.
- Automated Excel reporting workflows (cleaning, PivotTables, calculated fields) and delivered weekly client reports with charts/dashboards, reducing manual reporting time by ~30%.
- Coordinated with external data providers (e.g., Nielsen, AdMaster) to maintain accurate, up-to-date datasets and ensure consistent measurement across teams and campaigns.
