Strategic Partnership & Outreach Intern

- Serve as a routine communication point for prospective partners, executing targeted email outreach and follow-ups with nonprofits, brands, schools, and local agencies; document responses, status, and next steps to keep active conversations organized.
- Research and qualify 100+ prospective partners by assessing mission alignment, audience overlap, campaign fit, and feasibility, building a prioritized target list to support strategic outreach.
- Built and maintained a CRM-style partnership pipeline covering contacts, decision-makers, status, next steps, and weekly reporting, improving follow-up consistency and visibility into outreach conversion.
- Prepare partner-facing materials in Canva, including sponsorship deck, event proposal, flyers, and co-marketing assets tailored to each partner type.
- Coordinate with internal event and marketing leads to align partner deliverables, logo placement, shoutouts, activations, timelines, and messaging for community events.

JD.com, Inc.

Shanghai, China | Sep 2020 - Oct 2021

Digital Content Marketer

- Managed content strategy and execution for major e-commerce campaigns, including Lunar New Year Stock-Up Campaign and 6.18 Ecommerce Day, translating campaign goals into segmentation, category research, channel plans, messaging, landing pages, banners, and promotional copy.
- Coordinated with brand managers, designers, and on-site merchandising teams to align assets, approvals, timelines, and placements, ensuring campaign deliverables launched on schedule.
- Monitored always-on channel performance supporting 1.5M daily UV and 600K daily click UV; reviewed trends and refreshed content placements to support performance-driven optimization.
- Delivered a 7-day Lunar New Year Stock-Up campaign with daily category rotations across Fashion, Health, and Electronics, generating 800K UV impressions, 300K click UV, 38% CTR, and RMB 1.5M GMV through conversion-focused page layout and offer framing.
- Developed UGC/KOL content guidelines and led creator briefing and execution; supported onboarding of approximately 40K creators contributing to 99K posts, 1.61M daily exposure UV, and 91K daily click UV.

The BRIEF Lab

Chicago, IL | Jun 2019 - Sep 2019

Marketing Research Consultant

- Supported the launch of AlignUp, a manager-employee communication tool designed to structure 1:1s, goals, and follow-ups, reducing misalignment and improving feedback quality.
- Led research across 114 survey responses and 7 interviews; analyzed quantitative and qualitative data to identify pain points including unclear expectations, inconsistent check-ins, and limited accountability.
- Synthesized insights into personas, customer journeys, use cases, product messaging, and feature priorities aligned to manager workflows.
- Defined positioning and USP, "turn scattered conversations into actionable alignment," and developed MVP go-to-market plan covering target segments, launch channels, and success metrics.

PHD Media Worldwide

Shanghai, China | Jul 2018 - Sep 2018

Marketing Analyst Intern

- Prepared weekly client-facing performance reports using Excel dashboards and charts; automated cleaning, PivotTables, and calculated fields to reduce manual reporting time by approximately 30%.
- Analyzed performance across 10+ campaigns, 5+ brands, and 30+ placements, comparing CTR, CVR, CPA, and CPC to identify top-performing inventory and underperforming spend.
- Built audience segmentation and behavioral insights from device, interest, and context signals; translated findings into targeting, placement, and optimization recommendations.
- Coordinated with external data providers, including Nielsen and AdMaster, to maintain accurate, up-to-date datasets and consistent measurement across teams and campaigns.
